To

Shri Abhai Sinha,
Director General,
Central Public Works Department.
Nirman Bhavan, New Delhi.

Sub: Celebration of CPWD Day on 12th July, 2017- Selection of the Best Performers - regarding.

Revered Sir,

Kindly refer the Directorate's office memorandum No.12/10/2017-S&D/327 dated 06.07.2017 on the above mentioned subject wherein the names of the officers/staff who are selected for DG's Medals and Certificates of Merit were shown.

It can be seen from the above list that only two AAOs and one LDC have been selected for the best performer award and no OS is selected for this meritorious performance. In addition, even a single person from Western and Eastern Region has not been selected for the award from ministerial cadre. It is also a fact that maximum staff selected for this award is from the Directorate only, whereas lot of applications for the award is received by the Directorate from various offices of different Regions. It is a clear cut example of disparity shown by the Department against the Ministerial Cadre.

Contd.

-2-

After the issue of organizational set up by the CPWD, all the administrative responsibilities have been assigned to the AAO or OS. Almost all the work of Attendance, PIMS, Pension, RTI, PG Cases etc. have been computerized and on web base and these works are being done by the ministerial cadre and in fact the ministerial cadre of CPWD is implementing the schemes of Govt. of India as well as our Hon'ble Prime Minister of India's dream project of Digital India. Our cadre has been assigned for the higher responsibilities without any additional benefits.

Keeping in view of the facts stated above, we demand that the every category of Ministerial Cadre on All-India basis may be nominated for Award of Medal/Certificate of Merit and give recognition and reward for their efforts for the betterment of the Department.

An early action in the matter is highly solicited.

Yours faithfully,

Ravi Kumar Bhatnagar
General Secretary,
